

c o p y

22 October 1945

Memo to Mr. Justice Jackson

I listened to interrogation of Adm. Doenitz and have heard his testimony.

This suggests the need of having a critical examination made of the indictment with a view of giving consideration to possibility of revision, in view of effect upon the trial and public opinion--if the indictment could be subject to ridicule.

D.

Tolsted Quinn
B.L.