

Memorandum for Col Taylor

Re Baer-Zelenki.

This man had a bad reputation as a SS man in the Army.

He might be subject to the charge that he seeks to attain to the Army the fame that belongs to the SS.

It might be advisable to look into the possibility of using an officer less suitable.

There is a General Peiss in American prisoner of war in the camp of New Ulm. It might be worth while to interrogate him on this subject.
